

PETITE
PUMPKIN
PETSHOP

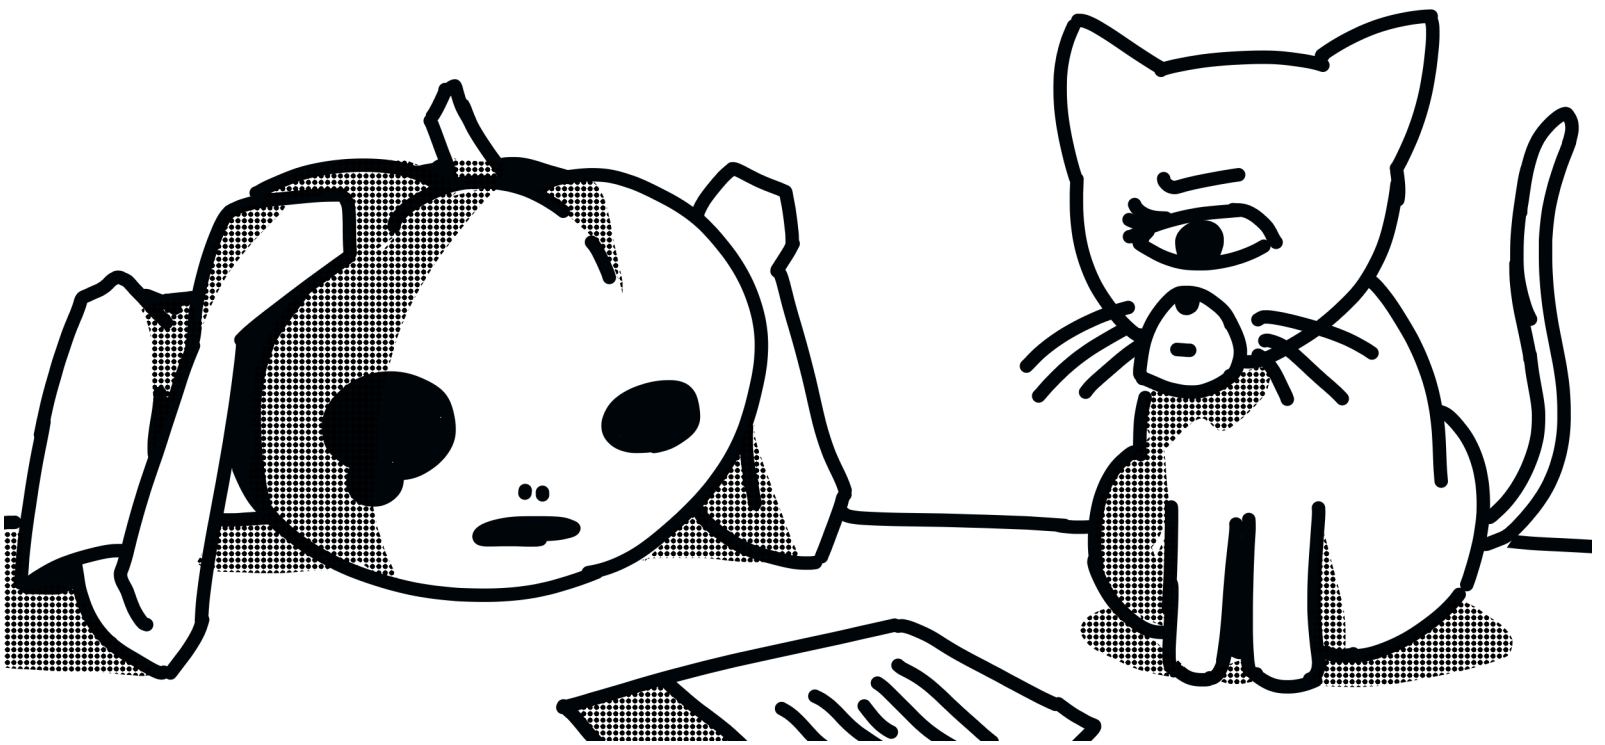

"Notice of enforcement"

"Dear miss Plum,
as you probably know..."

"... therefore, an agent
will come on this date
to collect the due paiement."

"Kinds regard."

It's a disaster

Running this shop is hard enough, but this is just the worst

I just don't have enough...

So, it's over?

...

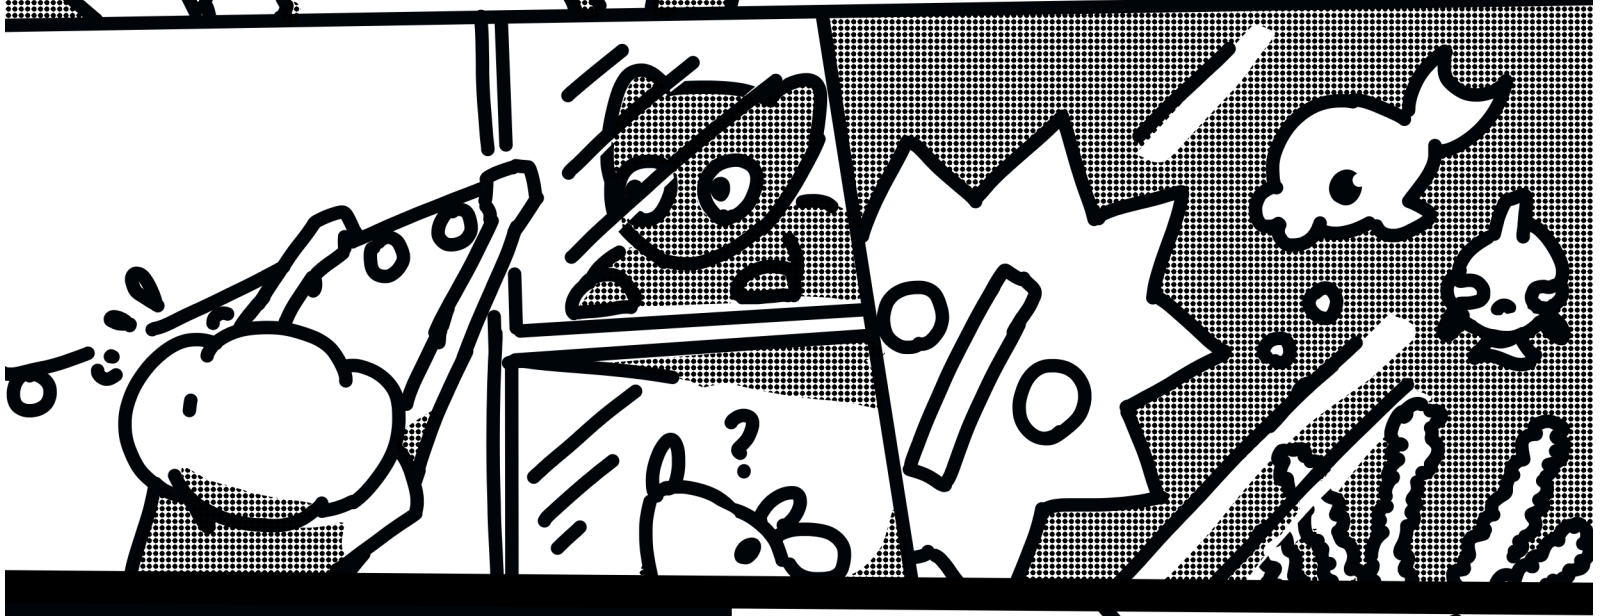

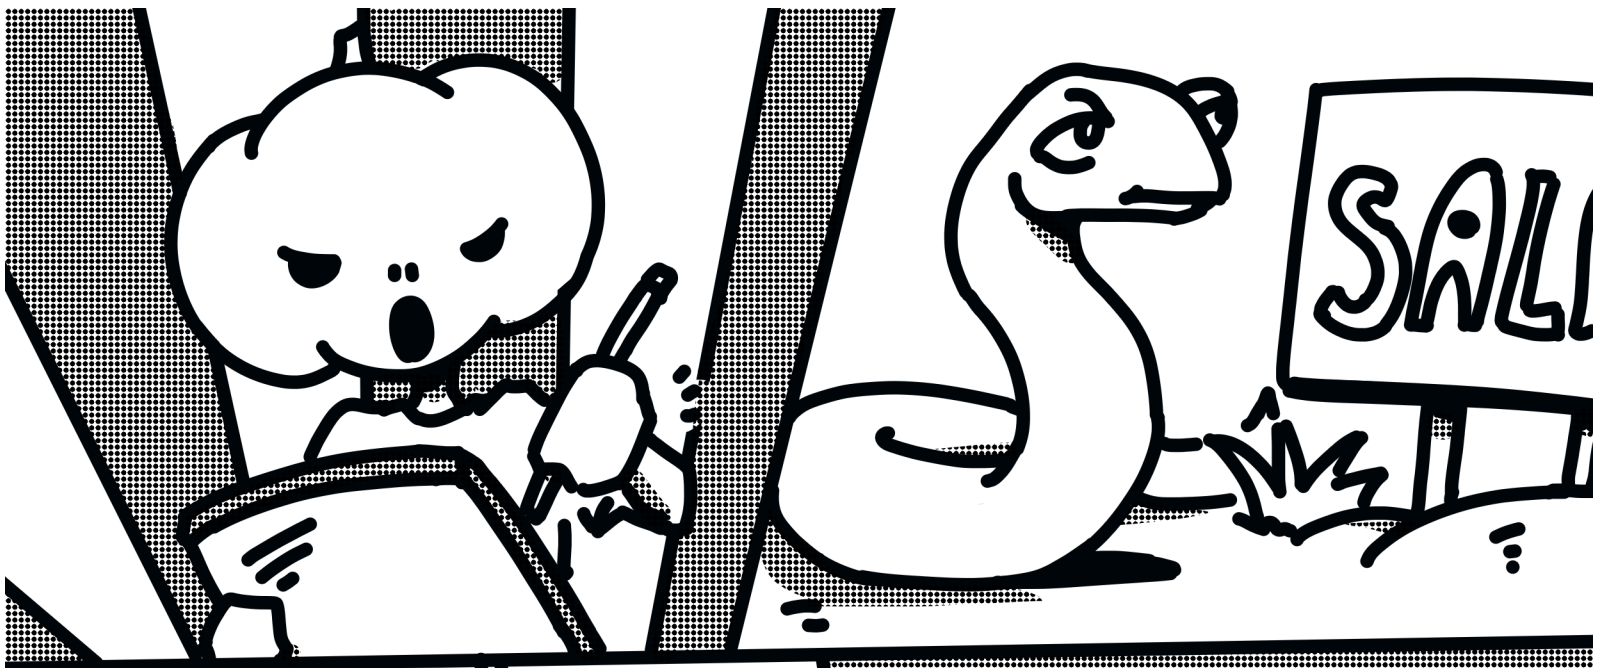

No, I can't give up like that

I have an idea...

We are gonna do an emergency sale!

A few hours later...

Now it's truly over

No ones even entered the shop

I'll find a good home for you before I die

Did you made any promotion?

Hum...

How are people supposed to know about the sale?!

Well, I don't want to bother them too much so...

Maybe someone will pass by and tell a friend and...

Stop it

but...

Stop.

okay...

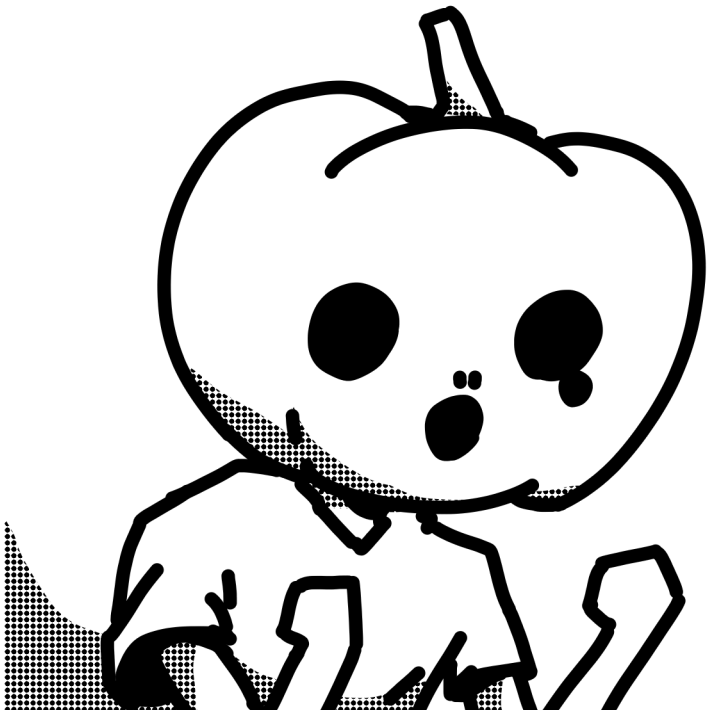

I know it's hard for you, but you worked really hard on that shop

You want to see everything stop just because people might look bad at you?

So stop excusing yourself for existing, and go get some clients!

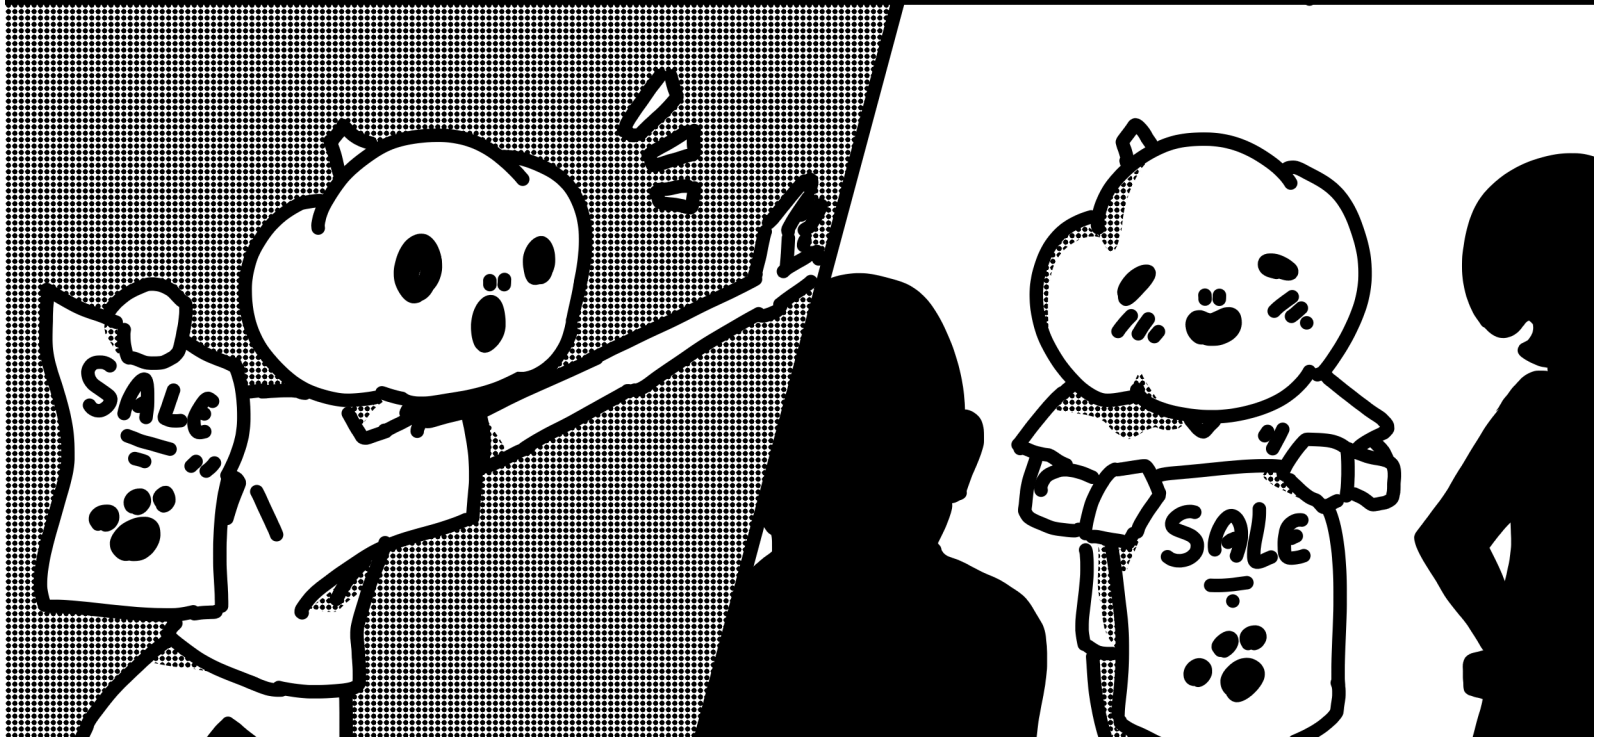

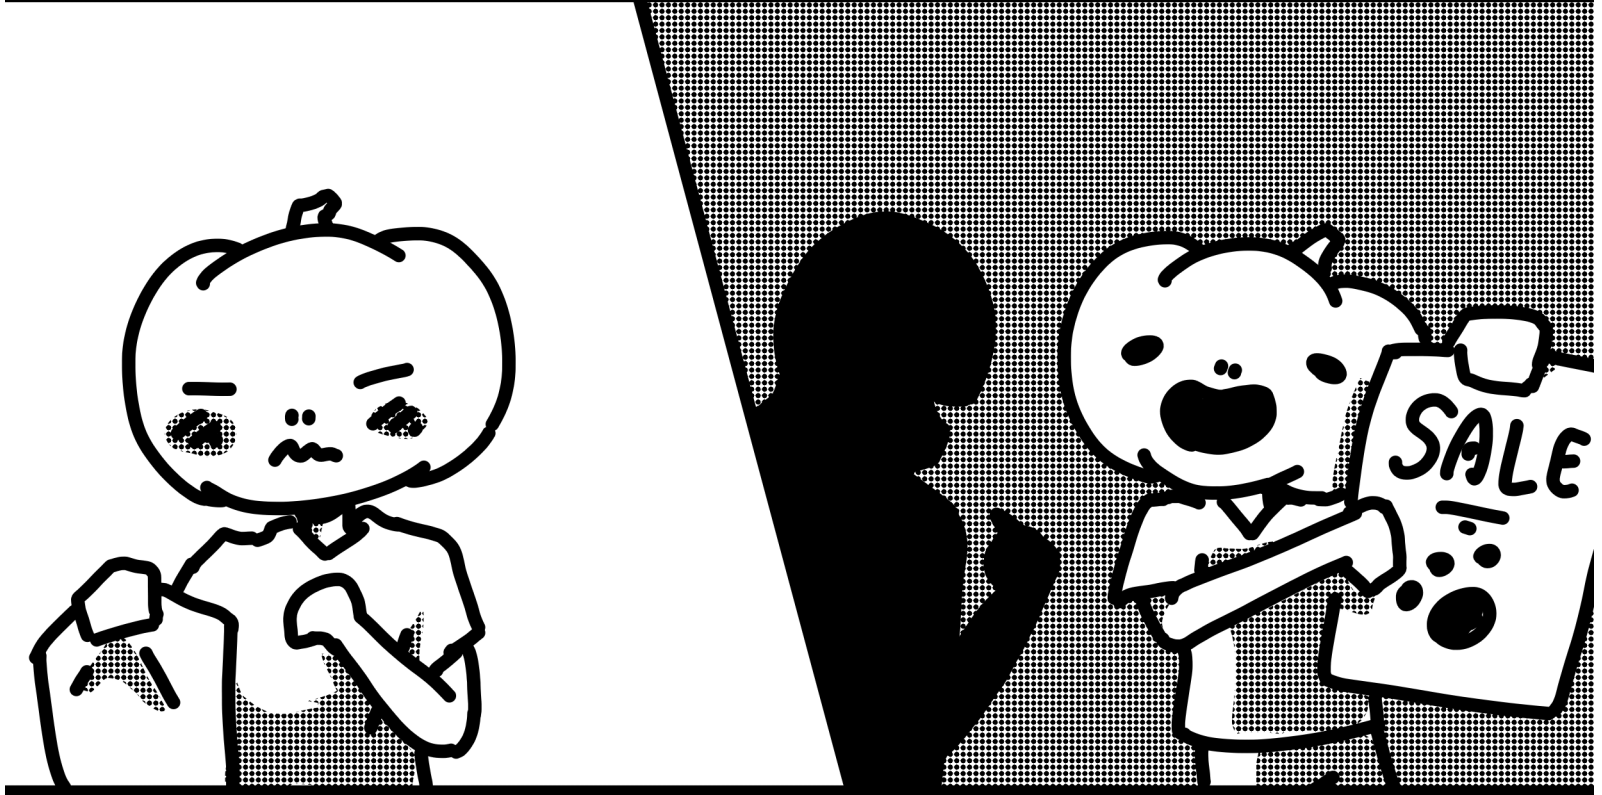

You can do it!

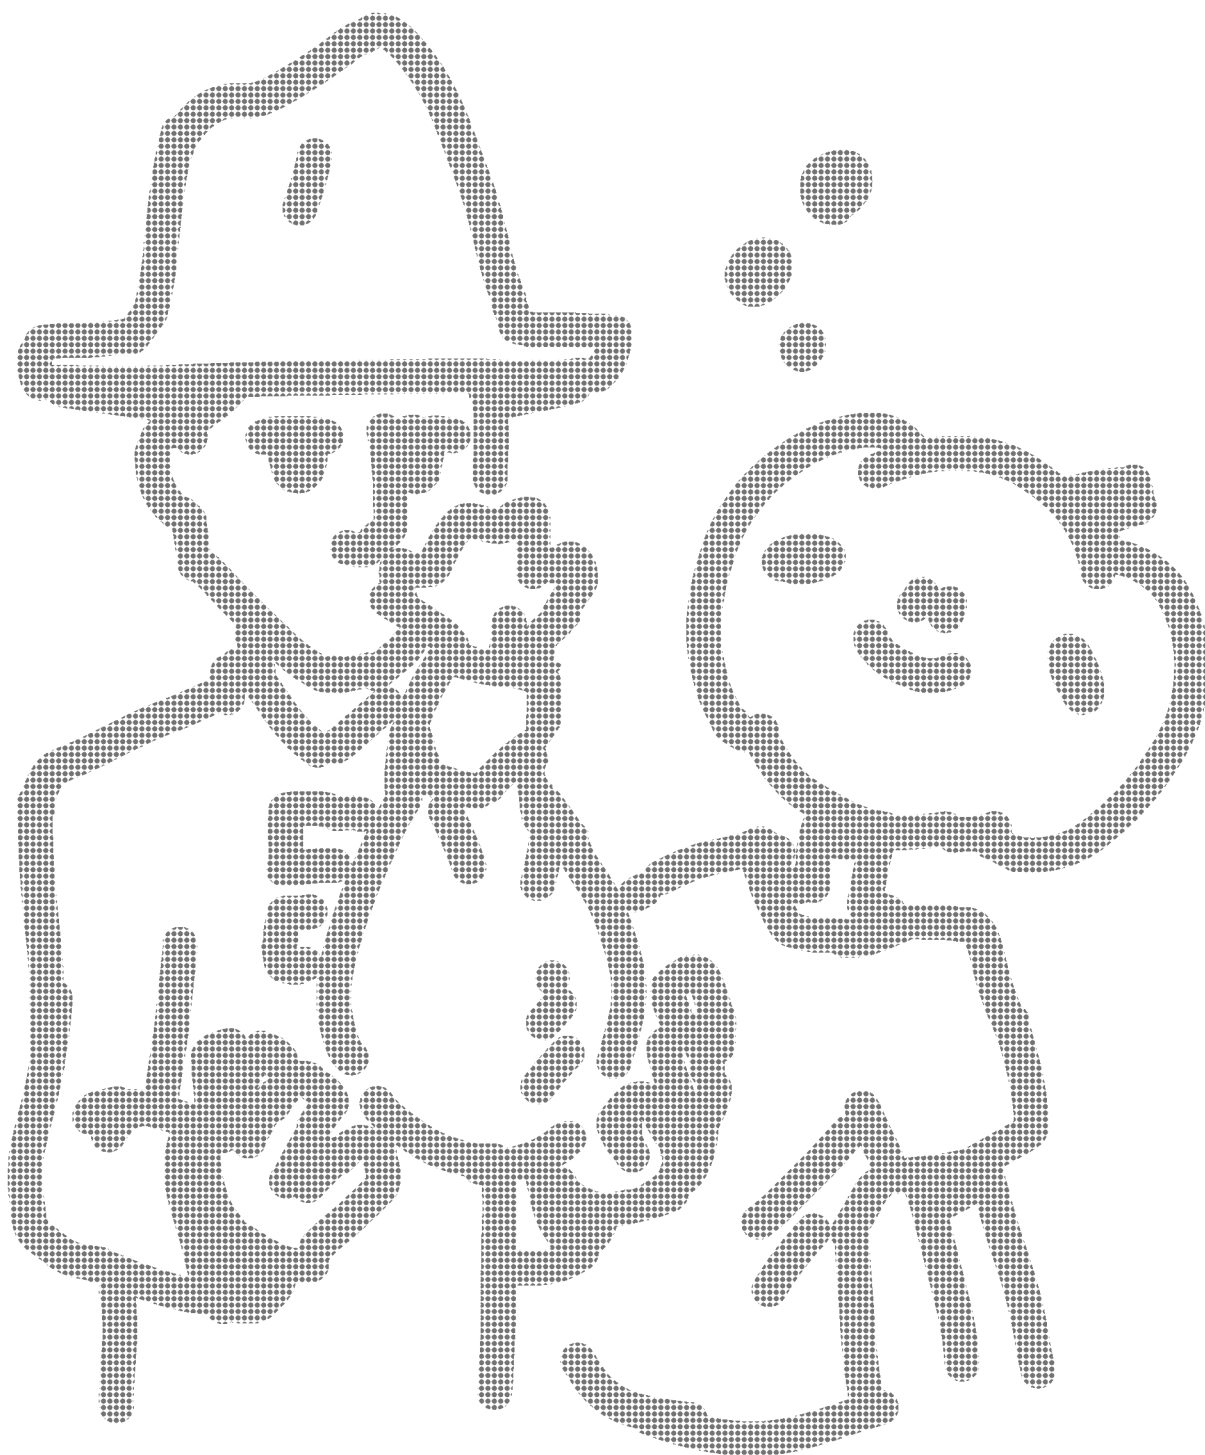

I... I can do it...

'proud of you
